The abolition of the free Netflix trial reflects massive changes in the streaming industry which was introduced in the short term in response to the Coronavirus pandemic and long term since Netflix launched its first original series in 2021. In the short term, a number of streaming services stopped offering free trial versions in 2021, because they minimized losses by bringing movies intended for cinema release to streamers. Disney's release of Hamilton on its service and Pixar's film Souls are among the major releases that have brought millions into the service, bringing in a sizable audience of people who watched the film on a free trial and then canceled their subscriptions.

That's why Netflix supports 4K streaming, provided it's available on your plan. When you try to save data, you can access plans that allow you to watch standard-quality videos.
